TAKEN FROM THE NEW ORLEANS ORLENIAN.—

Jenny Lind's Jewelry Stere.—J. WIKSTROM, a countryman, it appears, of the Swedish Nightingale, has located himself in the Pontalba Buildings, and immediately contiguous to the late residence of the famed Jenny. He has baptized his store Jenny Lind's Jewelry Steres and having the prestige of her great name to hallow his onward course, he can hardly fail of success. His musical Watches, if he has any, must be, from the fact of position, better vocalists than any other time tickers in the Union. Then his Jenny Lind Jewelry is fascinating, and his Jenny Lind Watches superb. It will be seen from his advertisement that the eweet singer of Sweden has taken an interest in his affairs. If so, he cannot fail having a share of her luck.

FERGUSON'S MANUTACTURERS ARROW ROOT bearch.—This article, warranted pure arrow-root, has been found by various manufacturers of cotton and woollen goeds in New England and New York, and aire by laun-dresses, to be superior to any starch in use.
